

DEMS Seminars

2017-2018

Schedule

October

25 Roberto Galbiati (Sciences Po, Department of Economics)

The political cost of being soft on crime

November

15 Fabrice Collard (University of Bern)

TBA

22 Michele Di Maio, (Department of Business and Economic Studies, University of Naples Parthenope)

TBA

December

20 Antonio Nicolò (Department of Economics and Management, University of Padova)

TBA

January

24 Rann Smorodinsky (Faculty of Industrial Engineering, Technion—Israel Institute of Technology-Haifa)

Bayesian learning in markets with common value

31 David Hendry

TBA

February

14 Subhasish M. Chowdhury (Department of Economics, University of Bath)

TBA

21 Giacomo Calzolari (Department of Economics, University of Bologna)

TBA

March

14 Alfonso Gambardella (Department of Management and Technology, Bocconi University)

A scientific approach to entrepreneurial decision-making: evidence from a Randomized Control Trial [ISTEI]

21 Helios Herrera (Department of Economics, University of Warwick)

TBA

April

11 Salvatore Nunnari (Bocconi University)

TBA

18 Carlo Favero (IGIER, Bocconi University)

The Market for the Italian Government Debt. An Empirical Equilibrium Model
28 Paul Matthyssens (Antwerp Management School, University of Antwerp)
Industry 4.0, strategy transformation and institutional entrepreneurship
[ISTEI]

May

9 Paul De Grauwe (London School of Economics)

TBA

16 Herve Moulin (Adam Smith Business School, University of Glasgow)

Fair Division in the Age of Internet

23 Victor Lavy (Department of Economics, University of Warwick)

TBA

30 Elvezio Ronchetti (Research Center for Statistics and Geneva School of Economics and Management, University of Geneva) [Statistics]

TBA

June

20 Andrea Presbitero (Department of Economics Università Politecnica delle Marche)

TBA